THE VALUE MONETIZATION AND PRICING EXCELLENCE FRAMEWORK

The “Value Monetization and Pricing Excellence Framework” is created through the collective insights of globally renowned pricing experts. It is intentionally designed as the cornerstone for two certifications: the Certified Pricing Manager (CPM) and Certified Pricing Executive (CPEX), and it stands out for its dual-focus approach: the CPM program concentrates on mastering pricing excellence and margin optimization from an operational and project-based perspective while CPEX is geared towards mastering and leveraging value monetization from a more strategic and leadership perspective.

What truly differentiates this framework is its integration into the comprehensive curriculum of these certifications, making it not just a collection of concepts but a practical roadmap for those aspiring to excel in the art and science of pricing, nurturing future leaders in our field.

FAQ

What are the learning requirements necessary to successfully complete the CPM program?

Our CPM programs adhere to a rigorous learning process. Participants are required to meet specific minimum criteria to obtain the Certificate, which includes active attendance at the on-site training and successful completion of the CPM Online exam.

What do I receive upon completing the CPM program?

Upon successfully fulfilling all CPM program requirements within the specified timeframe, you will be awarded an official Certificate as a Certified Pricing Manager from EPP. Additionally, you can showcase this certificate on your LinkedIn profile.

I represent a company or organization interested in enrolling multiple employees in the same CPM program. Is this possible?

Absolutely! We highly encourage teams to participate together in our CPM programs to enhance their learning and impact. Additionally, we offer special group rates for professionals from the same organization. For more details or to discuss group rates, please feel free to contact us.

I have concerns about potential legal issues arising from discussing our company's pricing within the CPM program. Can you offer more information on the legal aspects?

By registering for the CPM program, participants sign the 'Code of Conduct.' You can find detailed information about our code of conduct at this link: EPP Code of Conduct.

What is included in the CPM program fees?

The CPM program fees cover training expenses, all online educational materials, access to the EPP online e-learning platform, as well as coffee breaks, 4 lunches, and one EPP-organized group dinner. It is important to note that the fees do not cover travel, accommodation, individual dinners, or other personal expenses.

Will I have an opportunity to interact with EPP CPM Faculty?

Yes, of course. We intentionally limit class sizes to ensure ample faculty-to-participant time. Our faculty comprises highly engaging and experienced trainers who are dedicated to action-oriented learning. You'll have numerous opportunities to interact with our faculty during the training sessions, coffee breaks, lunch breaks, and evening activities. Many participants maintain contact with the faculty even after completing the CPM Training.

Will I be able to interact with other participants?

Absolutely. The learning experience is designed to encourage interaction among participants. You can interact with fellow participants during the training sessions, coffee and lunch breaks, as well as the CPM evening activity. Many participants continue to stay in touch with each other after the training, creating a valuable network for ongoing professional connections.
